

DUBROVNIK HOSTS THEIR FOURTH INTERNATIONAL WINE AND JAZZ FESTIVAL WITH THE HELP OF SUN GARDENS, DUBROVNIK

This autumn, the International Wine and Jazz Festival will once again descend upon this quaint coastal town, starting music legend José Feliciano. From the 25th - 28th September, music and wine aficionados alike can spend their time sipping on award-winning Croatian wines, frequenting exhibitions put together by local artists and perhaps most excitingly see world class musician and guitarist José Feliciano play. All set against the backdrop of the picturesque Dubrovnik Old Town.

José Feliciano, Grammy Award laureate, is scheduled to play two concerts held in key landmarks around the town, which includes the intimate venue of Rector's Palace and in front of the Dubrovnik Cathedral. Firstly, however, he'll be the headlining act in a VIP exclusive concert on 26th September, aptly titled "JAZZ IT UP with José Feliciano!" hosted and organized by Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik. The luxurious Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik resort is the perfect backdrop for this exclusive event, bringing together prominent names, artists and sponsors, as well as a guaranteed good time!

The second concert will be held on 27th September, again led by Feliciano and accompanied by the Dubrovnik Symphony Orchestra, conducted by world acclaimed Michael Klasinger.

For wine lovers, connoisseurs and those who just like good music, this event provides the perfect opportunity to try some classic yet undiscovered Croatian wines, whilst soaking up the atmosphere of this ancient town. The weekend as a whole is ideal for an early autumn getaway, offering culture, entertainment and diversity, whilst also bringing the region into the public spotlight and firmly placing Dubrovnik on the map for an interesting September break.
