out on page 42

Summer is finally here – and we're celebrating the great outdoors. In Free Range Children, (page 22) Katie Hughes explores what prep schools have up their sleeves to entice pupils off their gadgets, away from the TV and into the fresh air. Yes, a Swallows and Amazons type of childhood does exist and is thriving! Come September, some of you will be looking at senior schools; Thalia Thompson has some handy hints and tips for how to prepare your child for the big move. Take a look at our pick of six of the best action-packed family holidays, in idyllic destinations across the globe, on page 58. And don't forget to enter our competition on page 74, where you could win a luxury stay at Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik. Good luck – and see you in September!
