DUBROVNIK

A PLACE IN THE CROATIAN SUN

The Vacation of a lifetime at the five-star Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik

Dubrovnik, the Jewel of Croatia and UNESCO world-heritage site, prides itself on its charm, rich history, unique culture and unrivalled beauty. Not far from this enchanting city, with its cobbled streets and terracotta roofs, lies Croatia's award winning, five-star resort Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik. The resort offers guests the opportunity to experience the allure of the Mediterranean and its beautiful Adriatic coastline, together with renowned world-class facilities.

Overlooking the crystal clear waters of the Adriatic Sea, Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik replicates the ambience of a traditional Mediterranean village, set amid mature gardens with panoramic sea views. The resort combines modern architecture with traditional Croatian styles, maintaining a Mediterranean lifestyle and charm. Alongside these unparalleled views and classic designs, guests will find an award winning OCCO Spa, three pools, sports facilities and a range of stylish bars and restaurants.

Good food and warm hospitality are in abundance, with the resort's numerous restaurants and bars offering a variety of cuisines. From rich buffets and pool bars to a sophisticated wine bar and fine dining, there's always something to suit a guest's preference, with 16 restaurants and bars within the resort area. The dining venues accommodate a variety of schedules and preferences, so guests can enjoy the resort experience to the fullest.

For those who want to explore the stunning Croatian coastline, there's no better way than by boat. From the resort jetty, water taxis can take guests to explore Dubrovnik, sailing boats can be chartered around the islands and an abundance of water sports are on offer on resort.

Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik is built across 22 hectares of land and is a fully integrated resort featuring 201 elegant guest rooms and 207 luxurious one, two and three bedroom residences, all of which encompass the Mediterranean style of open, colourful and airy spaces. In the hotel there are 178 Standard, Deluxe and Club Rooms, 23 elegant Suites including Romantic, Deluxe, Spacious Executive and a superb, top floor Presidential Suite.

The location of the resort is beyond compare, not only located just 11 kilometres from the historical Old Town of Dubrovnik, but also ideally located just 35 kilometres from Dubrovnik International Airport and maximum 2.5 hours flying time from several major European cities. Sun Gardens, Dubrovnik's stunning Croatian setting, ideal location and exceptional facilities make it the ultimate destination. Above all, the location provides the perfect base from which to explore and enjoy everything the region has to offer, year-round. Explore inland, or just gaze out over the beautiful Adriatic for as long as you wish. It's the perfect getaway, allowing couples, families and groups of friends to relax and reconnect in a Mediterranean oasis.
