Butlin's reveals new 'Ultimate 80s Halloween Ball' weekend break

BUTLIN'S HAS unveiled its new 'Ultimate 80s Halloween Ball' Live Music Weekend break for 2015. For the first time, the company will run its biggest, spookiest Halloween fancy dress party. Bookable now, the 80s extravaganza will take place at the Minehead resort between October 30 and November 2.

An all-star line-up will see Steve Steinman's Vampires Rock Show performed live on the Saturday night, along with performances from Doctor and the Medics, The Blow Monkeys and 80s favourite Sonia. Tribute acts include Bon Jovi, Michael Jackson and UB40.

Tickets for the three-night Weekender start from £99 per person based on four adults sharing a silver apartment. For further information visit www.bourneleisureales.co.uk or call 0333-202 5224.

Inghams highlights Norway & Switzerland getaways

INGHAMS IS OFFERING SHORT ski breaks to Switzerland, ideal for a long weekend on the slopes.

Departures are available on any day of the week and of any duration available from three nights upwards. For winter 2015/16, the company is offering ski breaks in Davos and Klosters, St. Moritz, Grindelwald, Saas Fee, Arosa and Wengen and Murren.

As an example, a four-night, half-board stay at the two-star Hotel Europa in Saas Fee leads in at £604 per person based on a January 6 departure. It includes flights from Heathrow to Zurich and rail transfers to resort.

The operator is also giving guests the chance to discover Northern Norway in March next year, with a range of exclusive packages and activities, including a direct charter flight from Gatwick to Evenes.

Guests can choose from one of two adventures - a three- or four-night Island and Fjords adventure and a three- or four-night Polar Express Adventure, both including a range of escorted activities and half-board accommodation.

Prices lead in at £899 for three nights staying at either the four-star Thon Hotel or the four-star Scandic Hotel on the Island and Fjords option. It includes flights from Gatwick to Evenes and transfers and departs on February 28, March 6 and March 13.

Prices for a three-night Polar Express Adventure start from £799 staying at either the four-star Quality Hotel Narvik or the four-star Hotel Scandic. Flights from Gatwick and transfers are included and departures are on February 28, March 6 and March 13.

Rent Paris reveals commission dates for agents making apartment bookings

RENTPARIS.COM, an online booking platform that offers short-term holiday rentals of handpicked accommodation and selected hotels in Paris, is offering commission to agents for bookings across its apartment portfolio.

The apartment rental service offers a selection of 'typically French' apartments that travel agents won't find elsewhere and which they can commission themselves.

Between November 1 and December 22, the web service is offering a 10% discount to travel agents and 15-20% discount from January 3 to March 15 when selling the apartments to their clients. Agents are free to sell the apartments to their clients at the price they think is right.

Dubrovnik's Sun Gardens offers new four-night culinary journey for guests

SUN GARDENS in Dubrovnik is enticing guests to the Dalmatian coast with a four-night 'Culinary Journey Through Dubrovnik' package.

The new addition takes sun-seekers on a mouth watering tour of Croatia at its culinary best, stylishly arriving at the famed Peljesac vineyards by boat, followed by sampling Croatia's finest wines. For oyster lovers, the itinerary takes guests by boat to Mali Ston for oyster tasting, paired with a crisp Croatian white wine.

Prices for the package start from 709 euros per suite, per day for two people.
