A TRUE GEM OF THE ADRIATIC - KORČULA

Korčula is a true gem of the Croatian Adriatic coastline.

If these stones could talk what a story they would tell. A walled city, situated on an island bearing the same name, which was first mentioned in the 10th century and every pristine stone has its own special history. Approaching the island from the sea, as many a trader or invader would have done centuries ago, the city stands proudly, a white jewel silhouetted by the lush green countryside. The grandeur of Korčula starts at the very beginning, the entrance feels like you have been transported back to a time of nobility and knights, fanned stone steps leading up to the imposing Revelin Tower.

Once inside the famed walls the medieval city reveals its beauty and its architectural brilliance. The main street runs like a spine through the heart of Korčula with tidy side streets running off at right angles, city planning at its best. It is easy to navigate, lose yourself on a cobbled side street and you can follow your nose back to the main street. And losing yourself is one of the charms, with no traffic to avoid you can discover Korčula safely and at your own pace. Every corner offers a new sight, every square a new cultural treasure. One of these is the house of Marco Polo.

Through the years many foreign influences have left their mark on the streets of Korčula, none more so than the Venetian Renaissance. The main plaza in the very centre is St. Mark's square, and there you will find the city's cathedral again dedicated to St. Mark, a Gothic-Renaissance building built at the end of the 15th century. Although the history of Korčula can be dated back to the 10th century the majority of what can be seen today derives from the 15th and 16th centuries. Due to the immaculate condition of the houses, monuments, churches and fortifications it isn't too difficult to imagine just how impressive Korčula would have appeared all those years ago.

Lively cafe bars spill out onto the pavements, quaint taverns offer traditional dishes and trendy boutiques all bring a new life to these ancient surroundings. Korčula has a life of its own. Traditions have been respected, cultures nurtured and values preserved. However it is far from being a place that time has forgotten, on the contrary, just as through its history Korčula has adapted. The historic centre has a chic and elegant feel, waiting to be explored.

THE LEGACY OF MARCO POLO

Marco Polo was a medieval merchant, one of the first Europeans to travel along the famous Silk Road trade route, stretching from the Middle East to China. Significantly, Polo is reputed to have been born in the 13th century in Korčula, where today you can visit Marko Polo's house of birth. Despite its rather featureless interior, the houses' tower provides a panoramic vista of Korčula, stretching from east to west.

Throughout history, Marco Polo's bravery has inspired many travellers to explore the world. And here at the Sun Gardens, his persona was the inspiration for the name and programme of our Kid's Club, which bears the name of this great explorer!

SUMMER BEAUTY TRENDS FOR YOUR HAIR

Hair style can truly make or break your look.

And what looks more stylish than fresh-out-of-the-sea waves?

However, too much sun, chlorine and salty water can leave your hair feeling dry, fragile and in need of some extra pampering. Discover tips and tricks on how to look after your hair while on holiday for that glossy look all day long.

Holiday preparations should start with a new haircut. That way, you will get rid of split ends and have a new look at the same time. If you had no time to visit your hairdresser before your arrival, visit L&P Hair and Make-up Salon at the resort.

To minimise dehydration, include moisturising shampoo and conditioner in your summer routine and leave your hot tools at home. As an alternative, explore straight-from-the-magazine styles like a slick ponytail, a high bun, or a braid – the options are endless.

Once you settle in, you will probably head to the pool or enjoy the crystal-clear Adriatic Sea, soaking up the warm Mediterranean sun. Exposure to the sun's rays without protection can quickly cause serious damage to your hair so don't forget to protect it. Cover up your hair with a hat and use protective hair oil spray for full and vibrant hair even after the holiday.

High gloss hair will take the spotlight this summer, so whether you're rocking an updo or wearing your hair au naturale, consider spritzing it with a shine spray to nail the trend.

BONUS TIP: Whatever you do, don't waste your time trying to fight frizz! There are better ways to spend your well-deserved holidays!

OUR RECOMMENDATIONS (AVAILABLE AT ROSETTA HEALTH & BEAUTY)

KLORANE PROTECTIVE OIL WITH YLANG-YLANG WAX 100 ML

KLORANE RICH BALZAM WITH YLANG-YLANG WAX 200 ML

MACADAMIA NATURAL OIL 27 ML

Therapeutic oil treatment that instantly absorbs into the hair to promote moisture, protection and shine.

MACADAMIA SUN & SURF CONDITIONER 236 ML

A replenishing conditioner that safeguards against humidity and harmful UV rays and protects against moisture loss and seals out summer elements. Leaves hair feeling hydrated and smooth.

FISHERMEN TALES IN THE ADRIATIC

The Croatian Adriatic is abundant with many varieties of fish, from sea bass to tuna, so with a little luck there won't be any need for fisherman's tales.

Big game fishing, spear fishing or just dropping your baited line from a rocky outcrop, you are by the sea so why not try your arm at fishing in the Adriatic Sea.

For centuries the Dubrovnik region has lived from agriculture, trade, wine and fishing. These pillars of the culture were, and are today, entwined into the fabric of the society. The sheer richness of the Dalmatian Adriatic brought life and food to the citizens over thousands of years and many of the ancient methods are still alive today. If you want to have the "catch of the day" then follow the wise old fisherman, his spots and his techniques have been formed over centuries.

Both the common sea bream and the white sea bream are fairly common in Dubrovnik waters, order them at a restaurant and they'll be fresh. And also in medium depth waters you are likely to come across the European sea bass and the scorpion fish. For the more adventurous why not try a day at sea, deep sea fishing for the Bluefin tuna, a few game fishing boats organise all day or half day trips in Dubrovnik.

And for experienced divers the spear fishing is some of the best in Europe. Due to the clear and clean sea water and excellent visibility spear fishing is very popular in Dubrovnik. Divers from all over the world religiously visit Dubrovnik year after year just to spear fish in the turquoise Adriatic. Daily, weekly or monthly fishing licenses are available to buy at all good fishing shops and even online.

A days fishing in Dubrovnik, the fresh sea air, the aroma of pine trees whistling in the background and placid sea water washing around your toes...let's face it even if you don't catch anything you will still have a day to remember.

SEAFOOD DISHES THAT WILL IMPRESS YOU

Given its proximity to the sea, it is perhaps no surprise that seafood dominates many menus in Dubrovnik, and the fish, covered in local olive oil and served with vegetables, is a regional classic, and one of the most popular dishes. It is said in these parts that a fish swims three times in its life – firstly in the sea before it is caught, then in olive oil during preparation, and finally in excellent local wine as the meal is consumed and enjoyed.

So, what do you feel like having for dinner tonight? A true voyage of discovery awaits at one of our restaurants and we're guaranteed to have a fish dish for you. Dobar Tek!

THE MARKET

The Market is a perfect choice for a locally inspired evening meal featuring fresh seafood specialities and an amazing panoramic view over the crystal clear Adriatic Sea from its welcoming terrace. We highly recommend to try the pure traditional delicacy – Local Zaton Fish Pot (for two). As an ode to the Mediterranean, the chef de cuisine expertly blends octopus tentacles, clams, prawns and lobster meat.

CILANTRO

An award-winning Cilantro restaurant offers authentic ingredients bursting with flavour and modern culinary techniques make Cilantro the perfect choice for discerning diners seeking delightful dishes in chic surroundings with a breathtaking sea view. For a main course, we recommend you to try our John Dory and Sea bass served with Swiss chard & potatoes enhanced with tomatoes, garlic and olive oil.

MARASKA LOUNGE BAR

Soak in the stunning views of the sea and the nearby islands as you unwind, relax and catch up on the day's events in the modern surroundings of the Maraska Lounge Bar. Their contemporary dining menu offers a variety of light choices and we recommend you to try fresh Octopus salad.

For table reservations please call 3215 or contact Concierge at 3566 for recommendations.

WINE BAR VINO

The home of fine Croatian wines, VINO. Our charming wine bar offers award winning Croatian wines from every region of the country. From the lush rolling hills of Istria, the wide open plains of Slavonia and the almost vertical cliff-side vineyards of the Dalmatian coastline, discover Croatia through its rich wine culture. The best that Croatia has to offer with unique picture postcard views, explore Croatia one glass at a time.

For the true wine enthusiasts, we have designed Wine Academy - an appealing course to expand wine knowledge and sample some of the best Croatian wines. The Wine Academy is organized for 3 consecutive days designed for groups of up to 12 people. For more information and reservations please contact Concierge (3566).

70th DUBROVNIK SUMMER FESTIVAL

If one single event throughout the year is synonymous with the city then the Dubrovnik Summer Festival absolutely tops the list.

From the 10th of July to the 25th of August the cobbled streets, squares and facades of this historic city form the stages for drama, music and art. The city lives for the Festival and the Festival comes alive with the city. Over a period of 47 days, the historic Old City of Dubrovnik, its palaces, fortresses, the island of Lokrum and many other spectacular locations near the Old City will become the unforgettable stages upon which more than 2,000 numerous artists from around the world will perform. More than 100 musical and theatrical performances, including ballet, opera, folklore, and other genres, will delight and entertain visitors and locals. Although surrounded by walls of stone, Dubrovnik's heart is dedicated to artistry. This living artistic spirit is sure to capture the heart of every visitor, as they fall in love with the city and its festival.

This week from 27th to 31st of July do not miss the play Hamlet by W. Shakespeare – where Elsinore, Hamlet's homeland he was away from for years while studying philosophy – passed differently and Hamlet no longer knows nor recognises the place he returned to. The rules are different. The people he once knew are different. How to cope? Whom to trust? Should he take action? Is there a way to resist? Elsinore becomes Lovrjenac. A metaphor for what surrounds us today. Play is subtitled in English.

Tickets for Dubrovnik Summer Festival can be purchased online, directly at the box office or 2 hours before the performance. For more information and reservations visit Concierge or call 3566 from your room.
