A CITY OF BEAUTY INSPIRES CREATIVE ART: MEET DUBROVNIK'S PAINTERS

Beauty inspires art, and the magic of Dubrovnik has been captured over the years by various local and visiting enthusiasts. These days, of course, that art is played out in the digital age, and Dubrovnik is one of the most Instagrammable destinations on the planet, from where millions of images are uploaded to the web each year.

This is a new phenomenon, and as one would expect for a city of culture, tradition and exceptional beauty, it has had its fair share of influential painters over the years. You can catch up with some of their work at the various art galleries in the city, of which more later.

Best known is Vlaho Bukovac, who was born in 1855 in nearby Cavtat in 1855 and had a very international life before his death in Prague in 1922. Bukovac followed his own impulses when it came to style, and he changed course often. At one stage he was influenced by Impressionism, ending his career with the pointillist technique. He was also a very successful pedagogue. Arguably his most famous work, Une Fleur (A Flower), in 1887. It sold at auction in London in 2006 under the title, Reclining Nude, for over £100,000.00.

Born just two years later, Mate Celestin Medović is one of Croatia's early modern painters. He studied to be a priest at Dubrovnik's Franciscan Seminary, taking the name Celestin when he was ordained in 1874. He is best known for his large paintings depicting seascapes, historical scenes and landscapes of his native Dalmatia. Medović travelled widely and spent time in Italy, Munich (where he attended the Academy of Fine Arts) and Zagreb among others, before dying in Sarajevo in 1920. His most notable work was 'Dolazak Hrvata' (The Arrival of the Croats). You can catch exhibitions of his work in the Modern Gallery in Zagreb, Gallery of Fine Arts in Split, and Dubrovnik's Museum of Modern Art.

Following the lead of painters such as Bukovac and Medović, Dubrovnik developed its own special direction for Croatian painting, known as the

Dubrovnik Colourist School of Painting, or dubrovački koloristi or šarena škola in Croatian. This movement was spearheaded by three painters, whose names today are on one of Dubrovnik's most interesting galleries: the Dulčić-Masle-Pulitika Gallery.

Ivo Dulčić was born in Dubrovnik in 1916 and died in Zagreb in 1975. He is known for his vibrant use of colour and his love of motifs of his native city. Antun Masle was born in Orašac (where Sun Gardens Dubrovnik is located) in 1919 and died in Dubrovnik in 1967. A complex and creative personality, his work focused on observations of the environment in which he lived and worked, colourfully bringing out the natural Dalmatian way of life. Djuro Pulitika was born near Dubrovnik in 1922, dying in the city in 2006. His work has been exhibited throughout the world.

Other well-known Dubrovnik artists to look out for from this genre include Josip Škerlj, Lukša Peko and Josip Pino Trostmann. But where to see all this fabulous art?

Dubrovnik is blessed with a number of art galleries to do justice to the quality of work of its painters, and art enthusiasts will have lots of fun wandering through the old town learning more about the art traditions of the city.

The famous colourist trio are well-represented at the gallery which bears their name, the Dulčić-Masle-Pulitika Gallery. You can also visit the Pulitika studio to get a glimpse inside the artist's lifestyle. Also not to be missed is the Museum of Modern Art Dubrovnik. Founded in 1945, the museum moved to its current home in 1948. The permanent collection features many works by Vlaho Bukovac alongside other contemporary art exhibitions. The institution is currently having a new Renaissance offering more art happenings, workshops and exhibitions.

Colour, personality and vibrancy – the painters of Dubrovnik truly do represent a feeling of the city itself.

DUBROVNIK JEWELLERY – GOLDEN MOMENTS

Since the time of the Dubrovnik Republic gold has had an important role in the function of the city. The decorative earrings "rečini" that were once produced in the times of the republic are still made to this day. These ball-like earrings are extremely complex and require hours of painstaking work from gold masters. Throughout history these earrings were worn by brides or at gala events, this ritual is continued today in the region. And, as in times gone by, these creations are sought after all over the world, Hollywood actress Gillian Anderson and Princess Rania of Jordan have both been seen wearing "rečini." And for the men golden cufflinks, or "puce," have also been made in Dubrovnik for centuries. Once again the rich and famous have purchased their own piece of Dubrovnik history, the actor Morgan Freeman has golden "puce" in the shape of the old city of Dubrovnik. Whether it is gold, silver or even coral Dubrovnik offers you the chance to take a special piece of history home with you. Whether for a loved one, a special occasion or as a souvenir Dubrovnik jewellery will always remind you of your time in the city.

DISCOVER THE WINES OF THE DUBROVNIK REGION

In addition to its idyllic waterfront location and close proximity to historic Dubrovnik, Sun Gardens Dubrovnik is also ideally positioned to discover some of Croatia's finest wines.

The history of Dubrovnik is intertwined with wine. From the Greeks and the Romans to the times of Republic of Dubrovnik, the grape was cultivated and nurtured and its nectar celebrated. The story is rather fascinating, with more international experts praising the unique contribution they are making to the wine world. With almost 2,700 hours of sunshine a year, abrupt south facing hillsides and meagre soil, the conditions for growing grapes couldn't be better. There is plenty to discover with over 130 indigenous varieties, including Crljenak Kaštelanski, which was recently proven to be the source of that American favourite, Zinfandel.

Dalmatia's finest red is also a relative of Zinfandel, Plavac Mali (literally 'little blue' after the tiny dark blue grapes on its vines). The Pelješac Peninsula is home to the best wines of this excellent variety, a short drive from the resort. The green peninsula offers many unique experiences, from winery tours, finest seafood restaurants, to oyster and mussel tastings.

At the end of Pelješac, a short 15-minute ferry takes you to fabled Korčula Town, birthplace of Marco Polo, and the gateway to two of Croatia's best loved white varieties. Of the two, Pošip is more widely drunk, with its vineyards centred in the central Cara region, while the more intriguing is Grk, which only grows on sandy soil in Lumbarda, and where wine tourists can only buy two bottles a time, such is the limited supply.

Alternatively, head a little south of Dubrovnik to the fascinating and lesser visited region of Konavle, with its ancient traditions and way of life, where the rare Dubrovnik Malvasia is king of the whites, and where some excellent Merlot is also produced.

SOMMELIER RECOMMENDS

Malvasija Tezoro, Crvik, Konavle

Head a little south of Dubrovnik to the fascinating region of Konavle, with its ancient traditions and way of life, where the rare Dubrovnik Malvasia is king of the whites. Malvasija Dubrovačka is mature, warm, large, complex, solid, harmonious wine for top quality food. Crvik's Malvasia Tezoro got her name from a quotation from Držić's piece where "tezoro" is (treasure).

Dingač Vicelić, Pelješac

The Pelješac Peninsula is home to the best wines of this excellent variety. Vicelić is a boutique winery with a current production of 10 000 bottles of premium brand „Dingac“ wine. Dingač premium quality, fascinating, rich red wine is characterized by fruits, dark cherry, blackberry and plum, entertaining bouquet with richness of sugar. Nuanced spices and oak barrels supported by solid, but ripe tannin structure.

Rose Korta Katarina, Pelješac

Tasting Korta Katarina wines is certainly a very special experience. Mild pink hue, with an intense scent of red berries and roses aroma. Freshly dry flavour, with prevailing aromas of strawberry, raspberry, and cherry. Medium body, balanced, with the mild finish!

HOT RIGHT NOW – BARS & RESTAURANTS

Explore the dining options at Sun Gardens Dubrovnik, located in a chic surroundings with breath-taking sea views, serving traditional dishes, highest quality meats and representing Croatian rich wine culture.

CILANTRO

Inspired by a desire to explore the Mediterranean region, the Cilantro restaurant is a diner's gem that you mustn't miss. As the Adriatic Sea whispers on the shore, experience mouth-watering aromas. Dish like Beetroot Marinated Salmon, that balances a stunning contrast between the delicate salmon and earthy beetroot, should be on your must-try list.

BUTCHER'S GRILL

The Butcher is a "must visit" eatery for meat lovers. With a live kitchen and the highest quality meats from all over the world, you are guaranteed a delicious meal. Our chef recommends Beef tenderloin prepared on the grill and enhanced with bake potato, creamy egg sauce and fresh garden salad. As your steak sizzles on the grill, why not run through our extensive wine list to find the perfect combination. Our friendly staff are on hand at all times to guide you through our menus and offer advice on the ideal way to serve your steak.

THE MARKET

The Market Restaurant is a perfect choice for a locally inspired evening meal featuring fresh seafood specialities and an amazing panoramic view over the crystal clear Adriatic Sea from its welcoming terrace. Match one of these great dishes with a bottle of fine local wine and you have an authentic experience in a truly unique Dalmatian atmosphere. Our chef recommends the pure traditional delicacy – Local Zaton Fish Pot (for two). As an ode to the Mediterranean, the chef de cuisine expertly blends octopus tentacles, clams, prawns and lobster meat.

VINO BAR

Our charming wine bar Vino offers award-winning Croatian wines from every region of the country. From the lush rolling hills of Istria, the wide open plains of Slavonia and the almost vertical cliff-side vineyards of the Dalmatian coastline, discover Croatia through its rich wine culture. This is the best that Croatia has to offer with unique picture postcard views. Explore Croatia one glass at a time.
