DISCOVER THE DUBROVNIK REGION

You only have to look out of the window of your room at Sun Gardens Dubrovnik to realise that you are currently in one of the most beautiful places in the world.

The crystal, clear Adriatic Sea lapping around your toes, the Elaphite islands glittering on the horizon and the lush Mediterranean countryside surrounding you, this is heaven on earth. Now is the time to explore and discover your own slice of splendour. And believe us, the Dubrovnik region is fascinating, and one which encourages you to explore.

GAME OF THRONES

A television series which surely needs no introduction. The hit HBO series has forever linked the Pearl of the Adriatic to a new mythical name – King's Landing. Several series of the global blockbuster were shot on site in Dubrovnik, and tens of thousands of GoT fans flock to the city each year to visit the filming locations that were beamed around the globe. Walk the streets of the magnificent King's Landing, the very capital of Westeros, with your private guide who will take you not only to the locations but also the inside stories of the Battle of Blackwater Bay, the attack on King Joffrey and royal family by angry citizens and the famous Queen Cersei's walk of shame. To highlight your Game of Thrones experience, visit Trsteno Arboretum, one of the oldest arboretums in Croatia only a short drive away from our resort, and the beautiful island of Lokrum, just a few minutes boat-ride from the Old City harbour.

STON & PELJEŠAC

Less than 45-minutes from Sun Gardens Dubrovnik, visit one of Dalmatia's most picturesque destinations. At the entrance to the Pelješac Peninsula discover a fascinating little town: Ston. Your first impression will be the striking fortified walls which snake up around the rising hill of the peninsula, a fascinating stone wall construction of more than 5km in length, which is said to be the longest fortified wall outside of China. Stop for lunch at nearby Mali Ston, and you will enjoy one of the great true local culinary treasures of Croatia – the famous oysters of Ston. Napoleon built a road through the heart of the peninsula 200 years ago, a road which today allows you to drive through the famous Dingač vineyards, which enjoying stunning sea views both right and left. On your way through Pelješac, stop in one such vineyard for an authentic Dalmatian wine experience. Then continue on to an altogether different part of Dalmatian life in the sleepy fishing village of Trpanj, where a traditional Dalmatian tavern is waiting to offer you the very freshest catch of the day.

SAILING OFF THE ELAFITI ISLANDS

The 13 islands that make up the Elafiti archipelago - Elafiti comes from the Greek word 'elafos' or deer - are perfect for a summer afternoon of sailing. Whether you choose to travel on a historically reconstructed galleon complete with costumed crew and snacks, or jump on one of the party boats during the Summer Festival, spending the day with the warm breeze in your hair and the sparkling sea below must be one of life's greatest pleasures. Only three of the islands are inhabited - Šipan, Lopud, Koločep - and their beautiful shorelines are rich in maritime and natural variety. The ten remaining islets - Crkvina, Daksa, Golec, Jakljan, Cosmic, Misnjak, Olipa, Sveti Andrija, Ruda and Tajan. The islands are filled with pine forests, cliffs, caves, reefs and beaches. Even the populated islands have less than 200 inhabitants each, preserving their beauty.

CAVTAT

Medieval churches, tight cobbled streets, manicured gardens, palm-lined promenades and bobbing fishing boats, Cavtat epitomises a quaint Dalmatian seaside town. The city started life as a Greek colony before falling under the rule of the Romans in 228 BC, in those days it was known as Epidaurus, a name that you will often see around the town still today. The promenade is dominated by Baroque Church St. Nicholas from the 15th century; its stone spire can be used as a landmark for your day in Cavtat. Take the time to visit another Cavtat attraction, the Račić Mausoleum. The mausoleum has a prime location on top of a point on the peninsular and is the final resting place of the prominent shipping family from the town, the Račić family. The impressive building was designed and created by the famous Croatian sculptor Ivan Meštrović. The Franciscan Monastery, a five-minute walk from the mausoleum, is also well worth a visit. The church and adjoining cloisters were founded in 1481.

INTERVIEW WITH MARTEN FONTANIVE, JUNIOR FOOTBALL PLAYER

We wanted to catch up on the experience with one of our junior players from Football Academy in 2018, Marten Fontanive. Marten is a 14-year old boy coming from, as he describes it, cold Germany. Since he was a little boy, Marten started to play handball together with his older brother. Marten joined the Football Academy at Sun Gardens Dubrovnik because he loves football and he wanted to play as much as possible during his stay in Dubrovnik. Actually, his biggest dream in the future is to become a professional football player!

We asked him what is his favorite player or a football club, and we found out he passionately support Borussia Dortmund and that his football hero is Christian Pulisic, an American professional soccer player playing an attacking midfielder or winger for Borussia Dortmund in the German Bundesliga as well as on the United States national team.

"Finding new friends and having the best coach

Juraj Zagorc were the best things at the Sun Gardens Football Academy! I have found a lot of new friends from Norway and England and I am still in contact with them via PlayStation" Marten said happily. In addition to football programme, Marten also enjoyed the entire sports center and the indoor pool! "I would recommend Football Academy to other children because it's great to learn new football techniques and its great fun!"

There are many ways to discover one of the most beautiful cities in the world, but not many are as thrilling as seeing Dubrovnik from above!

In cooperation with our partner agency Korkyra, we invite you to experience a privilege that only a few get to enjoy and take the opportunity to visit the beauties of Croatia with our amazing helicopter scenic rides! Enjoy spectacular views and incredible scenery by helicopter, which will fly you safely over the iconic landmarks and notable historic sites of this inimitably beautiful area.

Our pilot, Laura Protat, started her aviation career as a helicopter pilot in 2002 and has over 14 years of experience in the aviation industry in operations and sales. She specialises in commercial aviation and charters, between Italy, France and South Eastern Europe.

Read more about Laura for a closer insight into a pilot's cabin.

SGD News: What has been your most memorable flight and why?

Laura: There have been so many... but if I had to pick one, I would say a flight from Rome to London. Amazing trip with breath-taking scenery and landmarks... the Alps, Lyon, Paris, London...

SGD News: What are three things you love about Croatia?

Laura: The incredible amount of colours, islands and history!

SGD News: What is the greatest challenge in running helicopter tours?

Laura: Well, safety comes first, and three major factors are weight, density altitude, and wind. Weather conditions must be ideal both at the departure point and the destination, so as a pilot I make sure the flight is safe to go.

To save your precious time while on holidays or to avoid traffic jams at the border crossings, domestic and international helicopter transfers are also available! Helicopter tours are tailored for up to 4 people. For more information please visit the Korkyra Travel desk in the hotel.

And while football may be the sport most associated with Croatia (let's not forget that FIFA Bronze in World Cup 1998), it is far from the only area where Croatian athletes excel on the world stage.

THE SWEET SIDE OF DUBROVNIK

Dalmatian cuisine is known for its healthy, fresh and local ingredients. With the Adriatic on the doorstep and tasty, seasonal produce growing in the fields locally, using recipes handed down by generations of grandmothers, it is perhaps no surprise that the Mediterranean Diet has been inscribed as intangible UNESCO heritage.

But what happens when it goes to something a little sweeter, like desserts?

Traditional Dubrovnik desserts are delicious, and they are made from natural products. Here are a few to check out at our Maraska Lounge Bar:

Dubrovačka rozata (Dubrovnik rozata) – Dubrovnik's answer to the French crème brûlée, and the perfect light finish after a fine Dalmatian meal. The best rozata is to be found in the Dubrovnik region, and although it takes quite some skill to prepare the dish, the ingredients are actually very simple – just eggs, sugar and milk. Dubrovnik Rozata has been afforded Croatian cultural heritage status – order it to find out why!

Čokoladni tart s ljutom narančom (Bitter orange chocolate tart) – Walk around the old town of Dubrovnik and you will notice a number of orange trees in the various gardens. The oranges are unusually bitter and have long been part of Dubrovnik's culinary tradition. Their bitter taste makes them not so attractive to eat as fruit, but locals are very creative, using them to make orange marmalade, orange cake, orange liqueur, orange juice, sugared orange peel called arancini. And for chocolate lovers, the best way to try this Dubrovnik delicacy is with the traditional chocolate tart with bitter orange.

Stonska torta s bademima (Ston almond cake) – Almonds are also prevalent in Dalmatia, and they contribute perhaps to the most unusual dessert which originates from the town of Ston, just north of Dubrovnik. Famed for its salt pans, oysters and what is said to be the longest fortified wall outside China, Ston also has the delightful Ston cake with almonds, which often fascinates tourists with its unusual filling – which includes pasta.

LA PATISserie

If you need something to satisfy your craving for sweets, La Patisserie is the place to go. Indulge in artisan ice cream and cakes, as well as a freshly brewed espresso with a glass of orange juice. And the children will thank you as they cast their eyes over the cornucopia of toppings on offer. If you get peckish in the afternoon, we have a choice of sandwiches, with bread freshly made in La Patisserie.

From sandwich menu we recommend you to try Dalmatian with prosciutto, sheep milk cheese and fresh vegetables - healthy and authentic, all 100% Dubrovnik and Dalmatia.

TRADITIONAL FOOD IN DUBROVNIK: WHAT TO TRY

The perfect Dubrovnik holiday involves a combination of factors: the stunning old town, the beaches, the sun, the culture and the delightful nature. And, of course, the food.

Dalmatian cuisine is one of the healthiest in the world, so much so in fact that its Mediterranean diet was inscribed as intangible UNESCO heritage back in 2013. The basic concepts are very simple: the freshest, seasonal local ingredients, which ensure that different specialities occur at different types of the year; simple recipes; and traditional home cooking, with those simple recipes passed down from generation to generation. Dubrovnik is a gourmet paradise, a combination of extremely healthy good, excellent traditional recipes and a passion for the freshest local produce. A true voyage of discovery awaits at one of our restaurants.

DobarTek!

CILANTRO

Inspired by a desire to explore the Mediterranean region, the Cilantro restaurant is a diner's gem that you mustn't miss. As the Adriatic Sea whispers on the shore, experience mouth-watering aromas. Dish like Beetroot Marinated Salmon, that balances a stunning contrast between the delicate salmon and earthy beetroot, should be on your must-try list.

BUTCHER'S GRILL

The Butcher is a "must visit" eatery for meat lovers. With a live kitchen and the highest quality meats from all over the world, you are guaranteed a delicious meal. Our chef recommends Beef tenderloin prepared on the grill and enhanced with bake potato, creamy egg sauce and fresh garden salad. As your steak sizzles on the grill, why not run through our extensive wine list to find the perfect combination. Our friendly staff are on hand at all times to guide you through our menus and offer advice on the ideal way to serve your steak.

THE MARKET

The Market Restaurant is a perfect choice for a locally inspired evening meal featuring fresh seafood specialities and an amazing panoramic view over the crystal clear Adriatic Sea from its welcoming terrace. Match one of these great dishes with a bottle of fine local wine and you have an authentic experience in a truly unique Dalmatian atmosphere. Our chef recommends the pure traditional delicacy – Local Zaton Fish Pot (for two). As an ode to the Mediterranean, the chef de cuisine expertly blends octopus tentacles, clams, prawns and lobster meat.

LINĐO - MORE THAN A DANCE

September 10 & 13 / Lazareti / 21.30

There are few things as synonymous with the Dubrovnik region as the folklore dance Linđo. A celebration in Dubrovnik simply isn't a true celebration without the sounds and sights of the Linđo dancers twisting and twirling. The beginnings of the dance in the Dubrovnik region can be traced back to the end of the 18th century, this is a dance rooted in the history of the area. The dance was used as a courting ritual, in the times before nightclubs and discos the Linđo was one of the ways for young men to impress and woo young ladies. The Linđo dance is performed in a group with a main leader, the dance master, shouting out instructions to the dancers. The dance is accompanied by a lijerica - It is said that there are no musical notes written for the lijerica, the music is passed down from generation to generation. Experience a small piece of the living history of the region on September 10 & 13 at 21.30 at Lazareti and take that memory home with you.
